Manager Cort Seeks to Enlist Miss Nannie Tout Under His Operatic Banner,

HAS A WEEK TO CONSIDER.

Miss Tout in Salt Lake Today Preparing for Big Wagnerian Concert in the Tabernacle.

(Special to the "News.") ogden, Oct. 17 .- A most flattering offer has been made Miss Nannie Tout, Ogden's great singer, by Mr. John Cort, well known theatrical manager, the desires to star Miss Tout throughout the United States next season. Mr. cert was in Ogden yesterday looking after his play houses located here, and expressed a wish to hear Miss Tout sing. After rendition of several numbers, Mr. Cort pronounced her one of the greatest vocalists he has ever heard, and he added parenthetically that he had heard some of the best in the world. He said that Miss Tout had everything in her favor, voice, temperament, youth and physique, and immediately offered and physique, and infinitely officed to sign a contract to star her next year. Miss Tout conferred with her father, E. F. Tout, who last evening held a conference with Mr. Cort. He made a properties of the start o E. F. Tout, who jast evening held a conference with Mr. Cort. After the interview Mr. Tout stated After the was not prepared to give an that he was not prepared to give an answer at once, and Mr. Cort gave him goe week in which to consider it and so sign a contract which will be left with Manager Grant of the Grand Open House.

At Miss Tout will not complete her work until about next May, and as next year will be her first appearance before the world as a grand opera star, the offs is considered very good, especially coming from Mr. Cort. It now appears very probable that he will have the pleasure of preparing Miss Tout's debut in New York, Chicago and other large cities next season.

Miss Tout was in Salt Lake today and had several sittings with a photographer, the pictures being taken in costumes which she will use in a big Wagnerian concert to be given in Salt Lake, in the tabernacle, on Monday sening, Oct. 29. The work that she will so that night will represent that which she will do in Berlin during the coming winter. When seen this afternoon she verified the correctness of the statement published in the above dispatch to the "News" from Ogden, and it appears within the range of probability that next year will see her under the Cort banner appearing as a probability that next year will see her under the Cort banner appearing as a grand opera star in the United States.

MRS. ELIZABETH P. DAVIS.

Well Known Pioneer Woman Who Was Laid to Rest Yesterday-Something Of Her Career.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Elizabeth P. Davis, relict of the late John S. Davis, and mother of Mrs. J. L. Rawlins, were held yesterday at 3 o'clock at the Eighth ward meetinghouse. The choir sang, "Jesus the Giver." Opening prayer was offered by Elder John Cartwright, after which Miss Esther Davis sang, at the wish of Mrs. Davis, "O my Father." Elders Walter J. Lewis, David L. Davis, W. N. Williams, and Bishop Hunter paid tributes of respect to her memv. A duet, "Oh, ve disconsolate," was rendered by Messrs. Frank and George Chamberlain, and Miss Davis sang "Home, sweet home." The benediction was given by Elder Richard Chamberlain. The services closed with the hymn, "Nearer, my God, to Thee." Mrs. Davis was born at Whiterock. near Ferryside, Carmarthenshire. South Wales, Nov. 5, 1823. In 1850 she was married in Myrther Tudville to John S. Davis, who was closely associated with the early development of rest and food and hundreds can testify Mormonism in Wales. Before their that they are the first meal in Utah marriage Mr. Davis, in 1849, was editor and publisher of the Udgorn Seion, the only Welsh Mormon newspaper ever

mon, Doctrine and Covenants, and other Church works. For years after coming to Utah. Mr. Davis was connected with the Deseret News. He was author of the songs, "The Busy Bees of Deseret," "All are Talking of Utah." etc., and the hymn, "What was witnessed in the heaven?" besides a great number of others in the Welsh hymn

The Davises emigrated in 1854 and located at the home where Mrs. Davis resided until her death. The deceased was beloved by a host of friends. She had but one child, Mrs. J. L. Rawlins, and five grandchildren, two of whom are on their way from Europe, due to arrive the latter part of this week.

Her anticipation of their home coming was unusually great.

Mrs. Davis was noted for her deeds of charlty, depriving herself of much to give to others. In the early days when the Mormon emigrants came to the Eighth ward square, she gave them rest and food and hundreds can testify that they ate the first week. Here at her house.

Her religion to her was more than her life, and she lived it to the best of published in Wales. In addition he her ability with a faith that never translated into Welsh the Book of Mor- | wavered.

Every Day She Said

Early in the morning before dressing, "Now I must quit drinking coffee, I know it causes my weak heart and the ever increasing nervousness. These troubles get steadily worse and what will the end be?" But when the coffee comes on at breakfast she says, "Well, just this one cup," and so it goes from day to day the same old round and the bodily ailments growing worse as time goes on.

The coffee habit acts like a personal demon, ever ready to offer excuses and to steadily push his victim one step down each day and laugh at the good resolutions.

But there's a way and a sure way to kill off that demon. Order the Coffee kept off the table and Postum Food Coffee served in its place. Then one can have the hot breakfast beverage with the deep seal brown of coffee, changing to a rich golden brown when cream is added, and, with a flavor all its own. the Postum comes as a strong friend in need.

The change in feeling will begin within a day or two, generalis the first day. The drug of coffee (caffeine) has been cut off and the body and nerves relieved, then comes the sturdy feeling of new life and new healthy cells being built in from the rebuilding food in Postum. Gradually the old aches and ails disappear and the joy and swing of health comes again. You can prove it in your own case,

"THERE'S A REASON" for

POSTUM.

PASSED TO REST LAST NIGHT.

Death Was Due to Pneumonia Which Developed After a Severe Surgical Operation.

A death that will be universally regretted throughout the state is that of William H. Foster. Only a few days ago the "News" chronicled the fact that the veteran had undergone a serious operation, and gave fair promise of a speedy recovery. Age, however, was against him, pneumonia developed suddenly and swiftly and last evening at 9 o'clock death claimed the sufferer. A resident of Utah since 1852, Mr. Foster was very widely known, especially in Salt Lake City and county His connection with affairs musical took him at times to various parts of the state, and he enjoyed a wide circle of friends, who greatly admired him for his innate honesty and goodness heart.

Local insurance men, especially those connected with the Mutual Life and the New York Life Insurance companies are taking a decided interest in the election for a new board of trustees, the voting on which begins tomorrow. As a result of the great Hughes investigation in New York, the legislature of that state, as is generally known, passed a sweeping insurance law, by which all old proxies were can celled, and a new election for retiring trustees was ordered, the voting to be-gin Oct. 18 and to end Dec. 18; all com-panies were forbidden to do any can-vassing prior to Oct. 18, but it is gen-ceally known that the crally known that the policy owners have been flooded with literature both

All the children are in this city excepting Frank, who is with the Savage Opera company in Boston. The date and place of funeral services will not be announced until word can be re-ceived from the son mentioned, pro-ceived from the son mentioned, providing he can be reached by telegram.

C. R. Savage, who had been a bosom friend of Mr. Foster for upwards of half a century, pays the following tribute to the departed veteran:

"The death of William H. Foster leaves a gap not easily filled, especially in the musical line, in which he excelled. His services in the Seventh ward will never be forgotten; his readiness at all times to assist in concerts for the benefit of others, without charage, was also one of the characteristics of his generous heart. In charage, was also one of the characteristics of his generous heart. In the fifties and sixties his familiar face and his accordian were seen in the social dances and were much enjoyed. The old folks' committee will also lose a valuable helper. He was the leader of their choir since the inauguration of the first outing, in 1875, to Garfield béach. Then, who among the attendants at the tabernacle services have not seen him on all occasions in the ants at the tabernacle services have not seen him on all occasions in the front row? He possessed a tenor voice of good compass and quality and was a good reader, so that he was one of the reliables that a choir leader depends upon. He joined the tabernacle choir in 1853, and was the oldest member, both in age and service. Of late years he has been a member of the Temple choir, under the leadership of Prof. Thomas. In all the walks of life he occupied the front ranks as of life he occupied the front ranks as a man of honor and sound business integrity, he was a devoted member of the Church, and a consistent one. Always liberal when help was needed, in every way a well rounded-out citi-zen, and it may be said of him: "Well tried and well proven!
